“The Meaning of Worship”

“Therefore I urge you, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living and holy sacrifice, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual service of worship. And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what the will of God is, that which is good and acceptable and perfect.”

Romans 12:1-2

Beloved child of God,

In order to prepare our hearts to be illuminated by the word of God He is going to speak during the upcoming conference, would you please spend 15 minutes everyday meditating upon the above verses? You may want to ask God these questions in your prayers:

1. Do I know, or have I personally experienced, “the mercies of God”?
2. Am I compelled by “the mercies of God” to offer my body as a living sacrifice?
3. What shall I do if my answers to the above questions are “no” or “not yet”?
4. Am I being “conformed to this world” daily? Or
5. Am I “transformed by the renewing of” my mind daily to prove God’s good will?

Above all, you can ask God to grant you a hungry and thirsty heart for His love and His word! May God bless you abundantly through this conference!
